

Additional (Optional) Training Resources

Virtual Trainings

Agency/Provider Name	Price	Description of Offerings
Institute for the Advancement of Family Support Professionals	Free	Includes webinars on topics such as: ACES, Toxic Stress, Trauma, Adult Mental Health, Breastfeeding, Child Development, Reproductive Health and Staff Safety in the Field (among other topics relevant to home visiting)
NYC Early Childhood Mental Health Training &amp; Technical Assistance Center (TTAC)	Free	Includes webinars on topics such as Developmental Milestones, Motivational Interviewing, Social/Emotional Development, Infant Mental Health. Some of the previous webinars have been recorded and can be located here
Florida State University Center for Prevention and Early Intervention Policy		Includes webinars around Vicarious Trauma, Relationship Building, Assessing Parent Child Attachment, Drug Use in Pregnancy etc.
Brain Story Certification Course	Free	This is a 30 hour course about Brain Development throughout the lifespan. It can be taken at staff's own pace and includes 19 modules. There is a certificate provided at the end. Access the outline here
Center on the Developing Child at Harvard University	Free	Youtube Channel includes information on: The Science of Neglect, Resiliency, Early Brain Development, and brief summaries of findings from scientific publications. These are great for team meetings and in-house staff trainings with time for discussion.
University at Buffalo "Trauma Talks"	Free	This series is recommended to assist home visiting staff in developing empathy and awareness about the impact of trauma on families. The Trauma Talks series is a collection of interviews that asks individuals to share how they have seen strength and resilience heal wounds of trauma as a result of the use of a trauma-informed approach.
Achieve OnDemand Online Professional Development for Home Visiting Professionals	Price varies	Includes webinars around boundaries in home visiting, ASQs, Reflective Supervision, Domestic Violence etc.
Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race &amp; Ethnicity	Free	This includes 4 modules on implicit bias, how they originate and how they impact the work of those in child protection. It also includes interventions to reduce bias.

Please see a list of training resources compiled from programs and CA; thanks to all who contributed to this list!

American Association for Marriage &amp; Family Therapists	Price varies based on CE Credits	Trainings are clinical in nature but can be used by Supervisors or PMs to earn CE credits to maintain LMSW/LCSW/LMFT/LMHC licensure. You also receive certificates after each training.
TED Talks	Free	Includes multiple brief TED talks on Mental Health that can be used in team meetings or trainings to demonstrate or expand on concepts related to mental health